Dear Mr. Morgan:

Thank you for your letter of December 31 advising me of the work you are doing in the Soviet legal field.

It is a pleasure to forward you a copy of the talk I gave on 28 October 1955 at the Walter F. George School of Law, Mercer University, Macon, Georgia, which was later published in the spring of 1956 in the Mercer Law Review. I hope you will find it helpful.

I will be looking forward to seeing your forthcoming articles on Soviet law when they appear in the issues of Soviet Studies, The American Slavic and East European Review, and the Journal of the International Commission of Jurists.

Sincerely,

Mr. Allen W. Dulles,
Director,
Central Intelligence Agency,
2430 NW E St.,
Washington 25, D.C.

Dear Mr. Dulles,

I was wondering if you had a reprint which you would be willing to send me of your article "The Soviet Concept of Legal Institutions" which appeared in the Spring 1956 issue of Mercer Law Review. As I have been working in this field for some time, I am sure that your analysis would be of value to me.

As a former research analyst with NSA, I am afraid that I do not have articles prepared while at that agency which I could at present send you! However, you may be interested in my articles on Soviet law which will be appearing in the forthcoming issues of Soviet Studies, The American Slavic and East European Review, and the Journal of the International Commission of Jurists.

Thank you very much for your consideration.

Sincerely yours,

Glenn G. Morgan
